DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

1. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on December 13, 2004 was considered during the time given to the examiner. If the applicant believes that a particular document is relevant to the prosecution of the case, the applicant is invited to mention the particular document to the examiner.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 3-10 and 33-38 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1, 4-5, 7, 33 and 35-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Hutchison US 6,449,476 B1.

Regarding claim 1, Hutchison discloses a method for of organizing a wireless communication device system software (see col. 1, lines 8-11) the method comprising: forming the wireless device system software into a plurality of code sections (see col. 4, line 62 – col. 5, line 6); storing a plurality of code section start address; storing a code section address table cross-referencing a plurality of code section identifiers with a plurality of corresponding code section start addresses (see col. 6, lines 9-15).

As to claim 4, Hutchison discloses the method of forming the wireless communication device system software into a plurality of code sections includes forming read-write data for the plurality of code sections in a shared read-write code section (see col. 5, lines 2-6, 17-21).

As to claims 5 and 7, Hutchison discloses the method further comprising: storing the symbol accessor code address in a first location in memory; in response to referencing the first location in memory, accessing the symbol accessor code; and, invoking the symbol accessor code to calculate the address of a sought symbol using a corresponding symbol identifier, and a corresponding code section identifier (see col. 6, line 9-21).

Regarding claims 33, 35-36, they are the corresponding device claims of method claims 1, 4 and 5. Therefore, claims 33, 35-36 are rejected for the same reason shown above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

7. Claim 3 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hutchison as applied to claim 1 above, and further in view of Kuroda US 6,4571,74 B1.

As to claim 3, 6 and 8-9, Hutchison does not specifically disclose the method of arranging symbols to be offset from their respective code section start addresses; and the method further comprising: maintaining a symbol offset address table cross-referencing symbol identifiers with corresponding offset addresses, and corresponding code section identifiers. In an analogous art, Kuroda discloses the method of arranging symbols to be offset from their respective code section start addresses; and the method further comprising: maintaining a symbol offset address table cross-referencing symbol identifiers with corresponding offset addresses, and corresponding code section identifiers (see abstract), thereby permitting the use of relative address (offset that require only one bite) instead of absolute address (that require full four bytes).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of the ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to add this technique to the Hutchison method for better management of the memory resources.

Regarding claims 34, 37-38, they are the corresponding device claims of method claims 3, 6 and 9. Therefore, claims 34, 37-38 are rejected for the same reason shown above.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
